

TAJSATS wins Catering Concessionaires at the new Bangalore International Airport

19 July 2006

After an extensive technical and financial evaluation by Bangalore International Airport Limited (BIAL), TajSATS was selected as one of the catering partners at Bangalore's new international airport. TajSATS will build an 8,000 meal capacity kitchen and it is expected to be ready in the first quarter of 2008 before the new airport commences operations.

The agreement was signed between Mr Mehernosh Kapadia, MD TajSATS and Mr Albert Brunner, CEO BIAL on 19 July 2006. Mr Tan Chuan Lye, SVP Catering was also present during the signing ceremony held in Bangalore, India.

From (L) Mr Tan, Mr Kapadia and Mr Brunner

Albert Brunner, CEO of BIAL said "through the selection of the Flight Catering concessionaires Bangalore International Airport will provide quality flight kitchen facilities to the airlines.

BIAL is committed to offer catering services to airlines at the best international standards and competitive prices. We wish to create a competitive environment between the selected caterers, in order to ensure long-term quality, efficiency and innovation in catering services at the new Bangalore International Airport."

Mehernosh Kapadia Managing Director, Taj SATS said, "We are delighted with the opportunity to be a partner of the new Bangalore International Airport's Air Catering Unit. We are committed to provide quality Air Catering services to our airlines customers. This venture represents our long term plan to have a pan-India presence in all major and upcoming metros cities."

TajSATS currently operates kitchens at the four metro cities of Mumbai, Delhi, Kolkatta and Chennai. A fifth in Amritsar is under construction and will be ready by year-end.

>>More news about TajSATS...